The student body chose Jerry Gates and Renee Roberts for this year's Mr. and Miss Trinity Heights. Jerry is a member of Key Club, Yearbook staff, Math Club and is president of our Student Council. He also has contributed much to our football and baseball teams.

Renee is a member of Ad Staff and French Club. She is president of "Z" Club and editor of the "Aquila". Both were chosen as a Top Ten Senior by the faculty.

These two seniors have been outstanding leaders of the school for the past two years and truly deserve the title, "Mr. and Miss Trinity Heights".

Jerry helps plan the slave sale.

Renee talks with Mrs. Kilpatrick about plans for the next Z Club meeting.

T.H.C.A. KEY CLUB ORGANIZES

The Key Club of Trinity Heights made progress in obtaining a charter from Kiwanis International. This will enable our Key Club to become a part of the worldwide organization. The Key Club will attempt to get many worthwhile projects, including those to help and improve the school.

Key Club boys work on project of saving newspapers and raising money.

The Z Club is a service organization. This year we have really been busy. Our club makes banners for athletic games, tutors at elementary school, sponsored food drive at Thanksgiving. We also donated mirrors to the school and a bulletin board for the foyer. In addition the Z Clubbers have helped a needy family during Christmas season, worked in concession stands, graded papers and sold tickets, candy and cookbooks. We are sponsored by the Zonta Club and Mrs. Sybil Kilpatrick is our sponsor this year. Each girl is required to have a minimum of forty hours a semester and an average of 2.8.

Z Club makes banners for all football games.

Renee looks over the agenda, while Ann calls the roll.

1972 EAGLES BEAK

Debi Windham, co-editor; and Deborah Fielder, Editor; look over old newspapers for new ideas for the Eagles Beak.

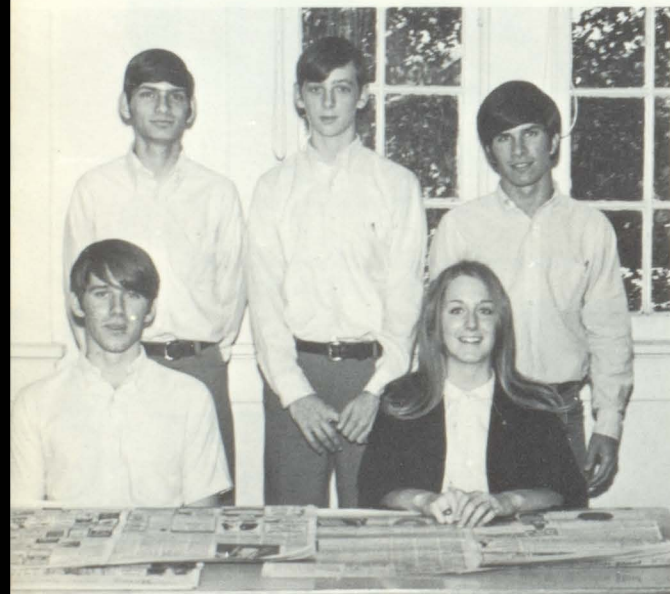

Becky Balentine and Monica Pesnell enjoy working on features.

Typists: Debbie Langton, Nancy Faries, Sarah Gould, and Melissa Light, type diligently to finish the final copy.

SITTING: David Dixon, Lisa Long, and STANDING: Mike Brown, Gary Greer, Paul Ross, work on various articles for the newspaper.

Others working on the Eagles Beak Staff include: Pam Langton, Jerry Gates, and Nancy Keoun.

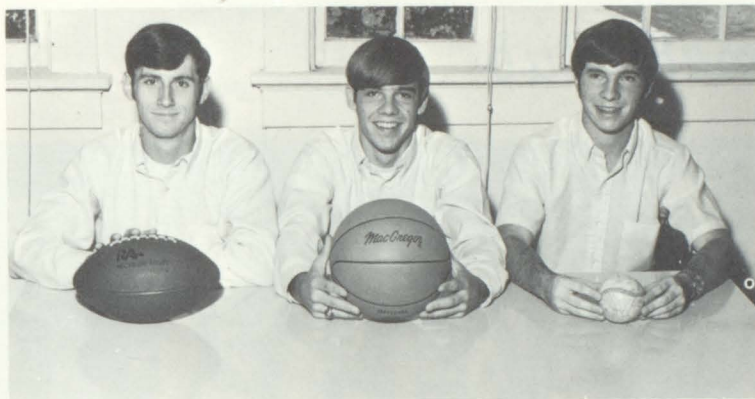

STAFF ... AT WORK

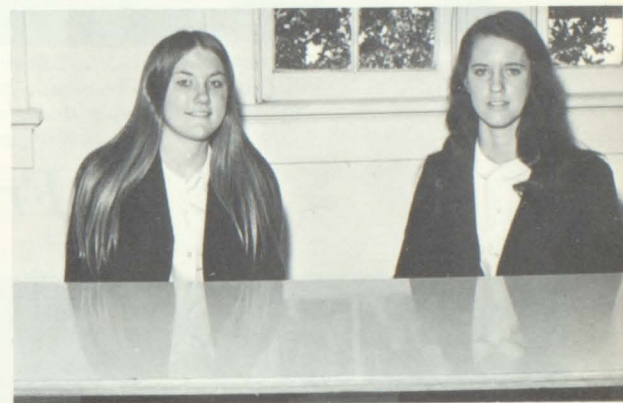

Melinda Asaff and Kathleen Brock enjoy selling newspapers to the homerooms.

Mendi Hargraves and Terry Parent work on publicity while Chris Kauffman and Bill Alexander find new ideas for Club news.

John Good, Jerry Gates and G. W. Gibson work on various sport items for the newspaper.

The art work in the newspaper was done by Carolyn Lockhart and Laura Ayers.

Communications are a tricky thing. Good relations with your colleagues and the world depends upon them. The "Eagle's Beak" endeavored to promote good relations by uniting the student body and faculty through entertaining and informative news.

Having no designated period during the school day set aside to construct a paper, the Eagle's Beak Staff was forced to scatter throughout the student body. The Eagle's Beak surprised its readers every time and came through with a paper worthy of the name Trinity Heights.

Jeanette Law, Marsanne Goldby, Carla Furlow, Jan Hart and Vicki Trainer stop to chat about the latest gossip.

French Club

Mrs. Candler, French Club sponsor, shows slides to club.

The purpose of the French Club is to promote interest and a better understanding of French culture. All students participate. Le Cercle Francais made spirit posters for football and basketball games- in French of course. This year the club saw films about the way of life in France. The club hopes to purchase filmstrips and maps which will tell us more about France and her people.

The Math Club is founded on the belief that young people like to have a good time. They had a delightful year, their main activity being monthly "eatin' meetin's" at Mrs. Dixon's home in Belcher. At these "eatin' meetin's" the members played such games as chess, checkers, dominos, and cards. Ben Stevens, a resident of Belcher, attended many of the meetings and tried some of his new games on the members. The relaxation of good times and good food is just one of the memories of high school. The Math Club wants to be a part of those pleasant memories.

4-H is an organization of U. S. youth clubs, whose aim is to give training in practical skills through real-life experiences to young people. Members may choose from some 100 different programs in agriculture, home economics, and community service. In each of these different programs, they have projects, work shops, and different contests, that members can attend, to learn, have fun, and win money, scholarships, and other prizes. The 4-H club is supervised and by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The Drama Club's purpose is to entertain. Even with little talent at THCA, we can entertain and have fun at the same time. After all, that's what it's all about. With the cooperation of the student body, the Club is preparing for a spring production. The main money-making project is selling stationery to the students here and to anyone else who wants some. The Drama Club has thoroughly enjoyed this year at Trinity Heights.

Pat Parnell performed at one of the football games while Carla Biggs performed throughout the football season.

BAND MEMBERS: ROW 1: Dayna Fredieu, Valerie Sawyer, Amy Hardcastle, Carla Biggs, Elizabeth Graves, Charlotte Tyson.

Trinity Heights Band has undergone many changes this past year. Under the direction of Mr. Sammy Griffin, the band has grown and helped boost the spirit. We began the year by playing at almost all of our football games plus a little special entertainment at half time. This "hard working" group played earlier in the year for the first P. T. O. meeting for the 71-72 school term and entertained the audience at the Second Annual Beauty Pagant in November. With the help of the school and the student body, the future should be very bright for the Trinity Heights Band.

The attitude of the players made the difference in our season. We won several ball games in which the opposition was bigger and stronger. It is my hope that in the future years I will be able to associate with equally as fine young men.

CADDO TRUST AND SAVINGS

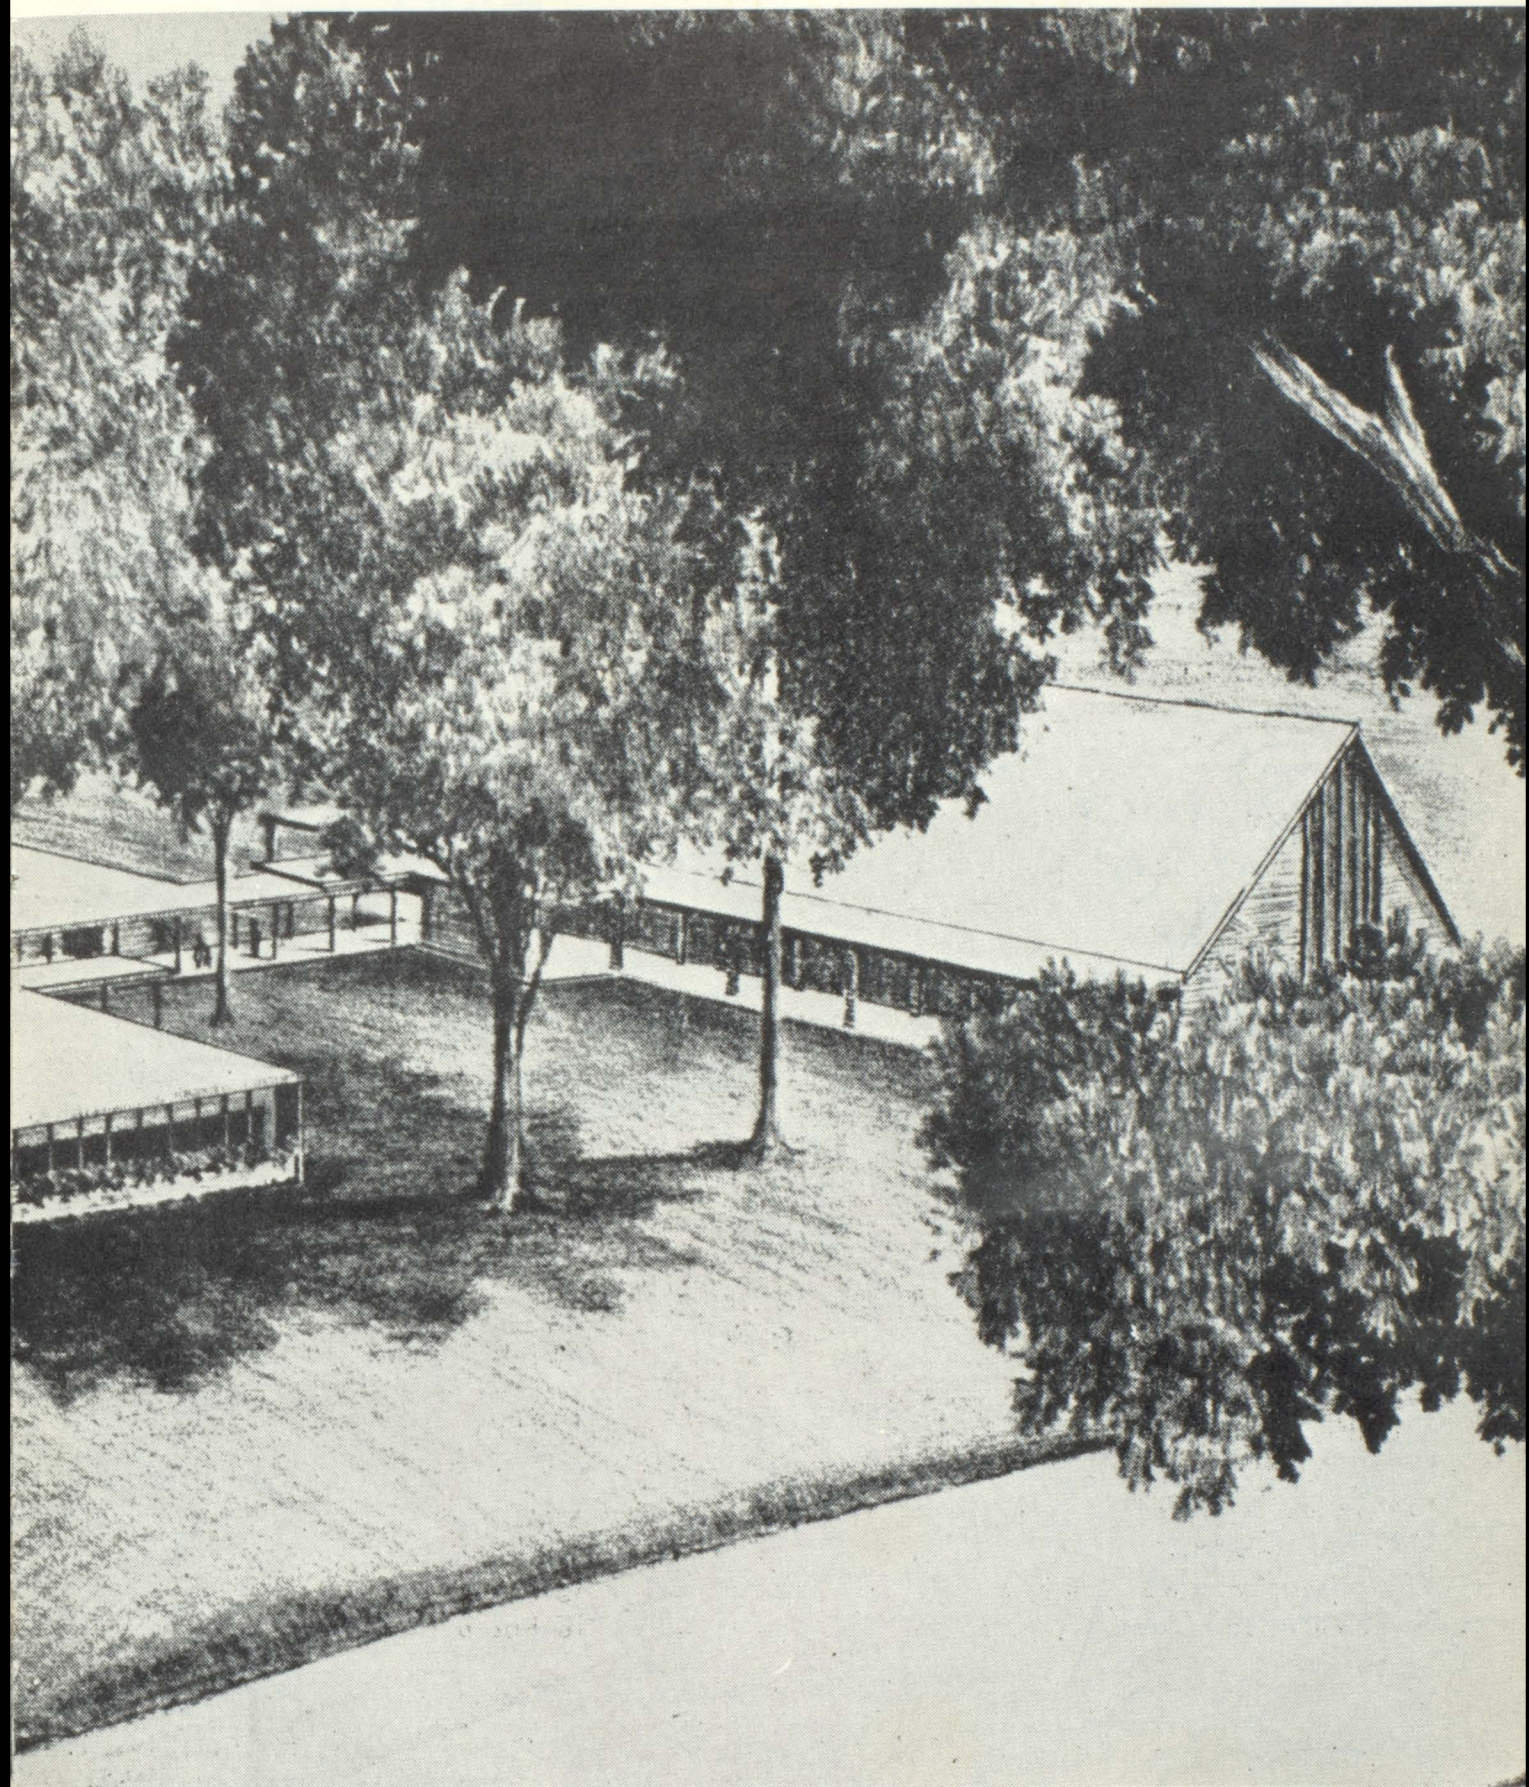

Belcher-Gilliam, Louisiana
"Serving North Caddo Parish"

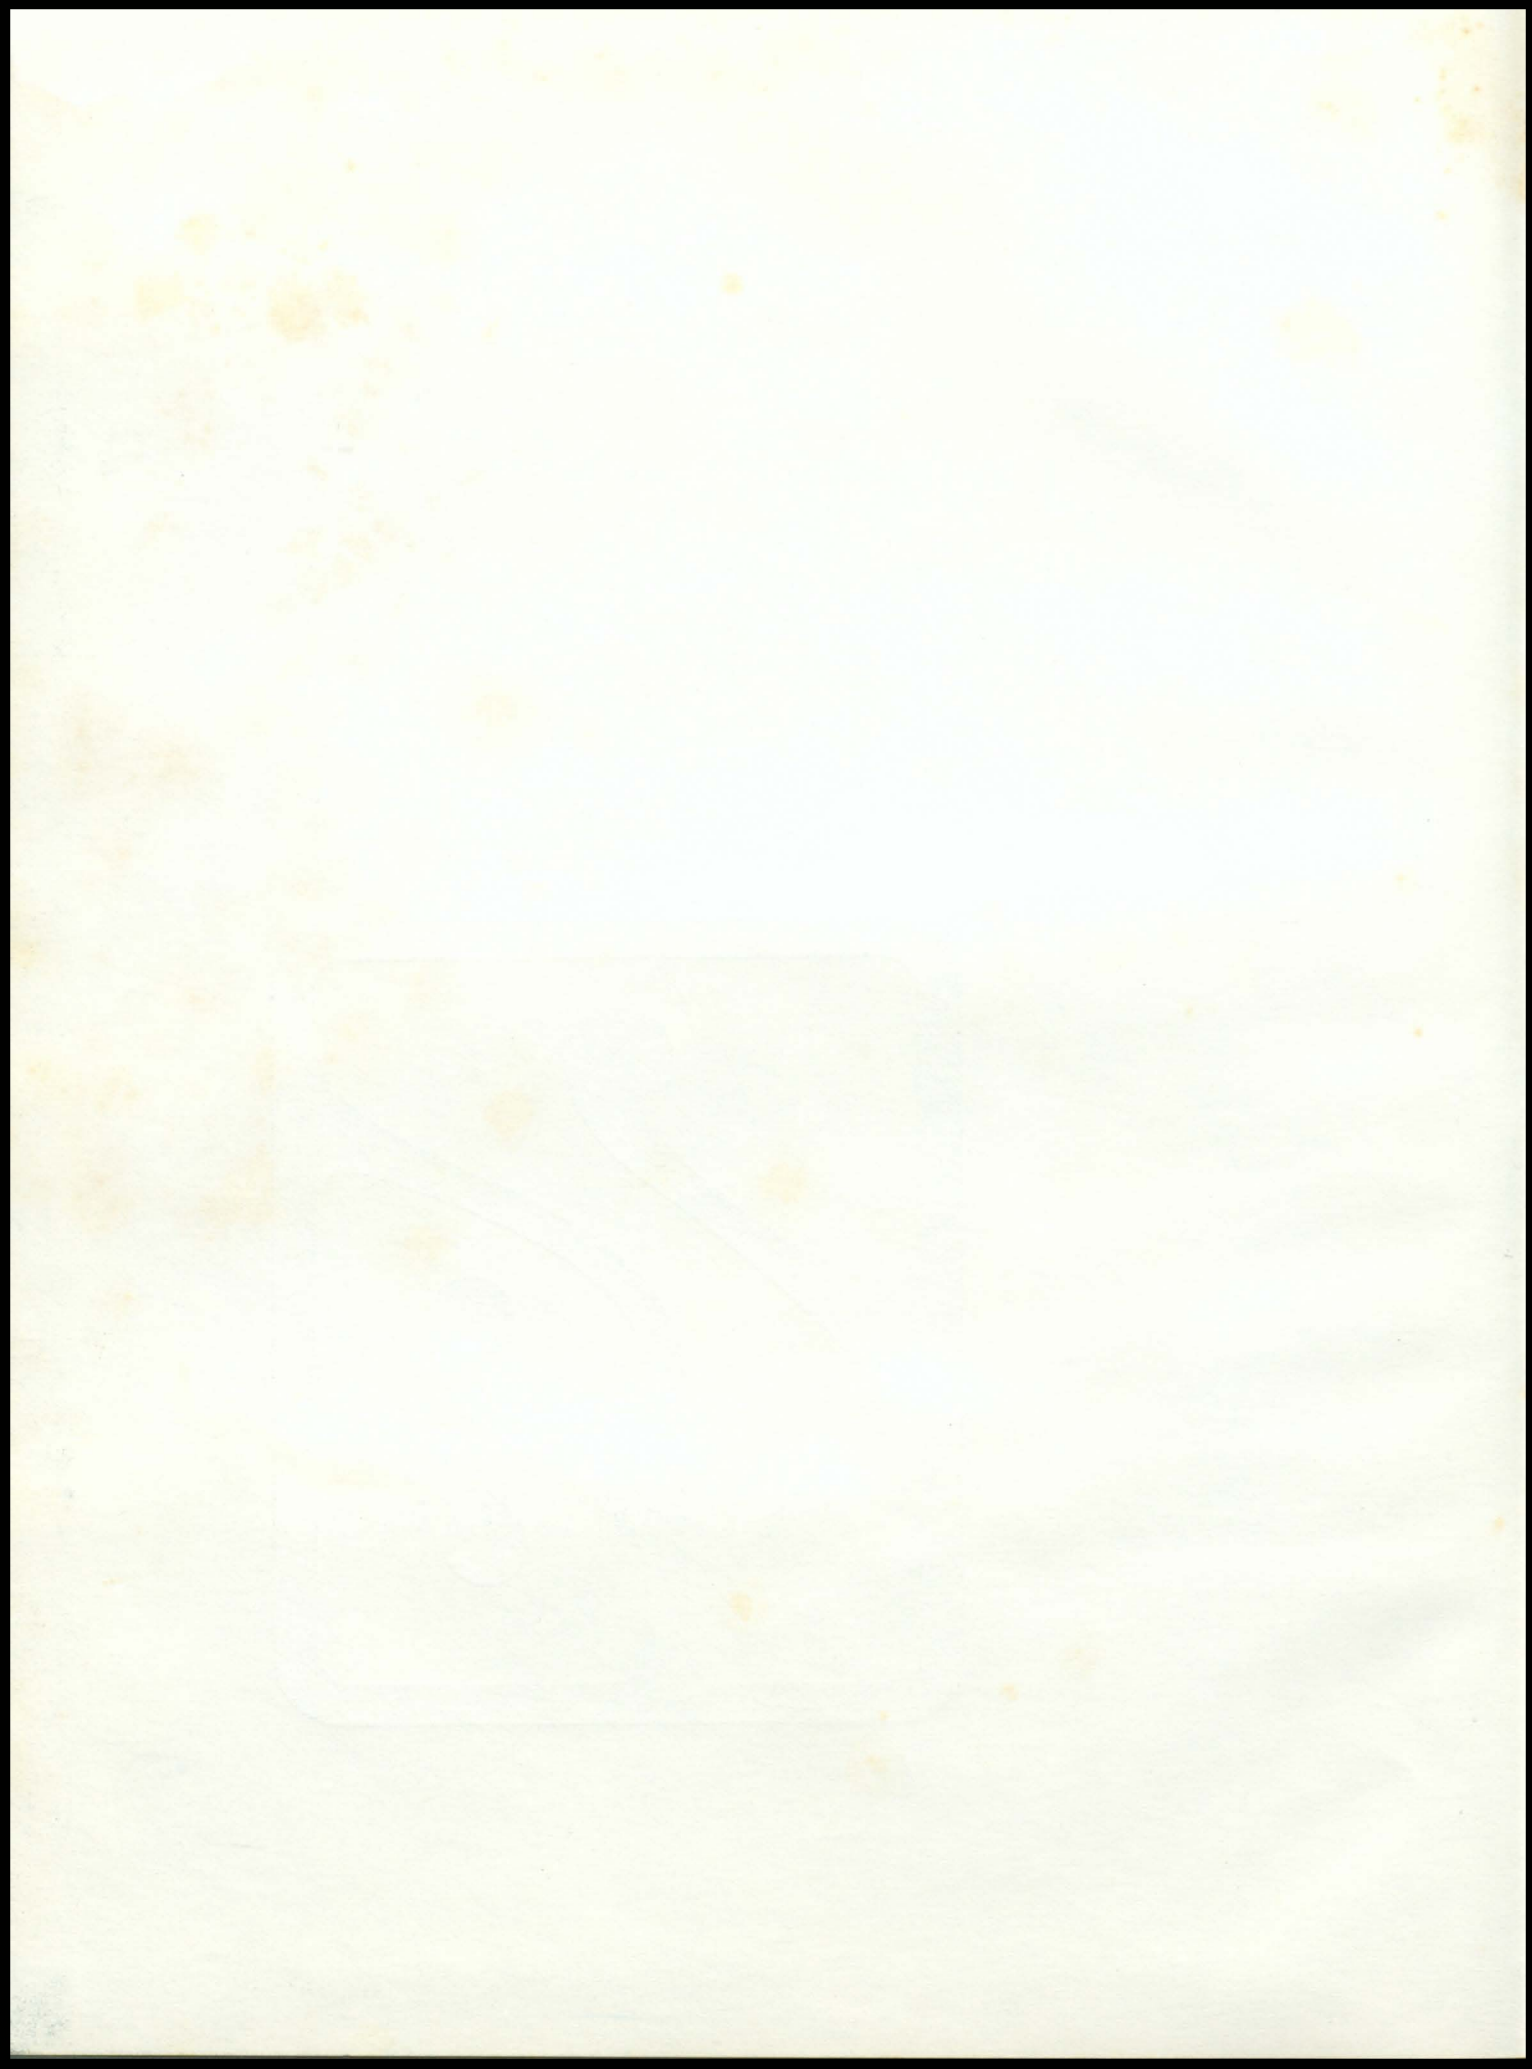

The AQUILA staff has contributed many long hours this year to student body and faculty would be proud of the 1971-1972 AQUILA. I would like to give special thanks to Mrs. Marie Boyce, our sponsor.

I hope this book will be used to remember the '71-'72 school year and all of its happy memories.
